DAILY GAZETTE.

THE TRIUMPH YESTERDAY.

The result of the election yesterday will fill the heart of every Republican with joy. The city of Pittsburgh, of Allegheny, and the entire county of Allegheny give the State ticket a majority that is entirely gratifying. We do not doubt that it will aggregate 6,500 majority. The county ticket is also elected by a majority that is very large, circumstances considered. FIFE is elected,—a circumstance all the more gratifying, in view of the fight made directly on him. It was expected that the other candidates would be elected, but fears were entertained for FIFE, because of the concentration of effort against him. We think our county ticket will be found to have about 5,000 majority. We feel particularly gratified at this, because of the bad faith of certain parties, in working against portions of our ticket. It was bad business at best, and will not contribute to the development of good feeling toward such persons. Still, all can afford to be forgiving, in view of the results attained.

With such returns as we have, we are confident that HARTRANFT will go to Philadelphia with 10,000 majority, which will give him about 25,000 in the State. If these figures are reached it will be, in reality, a larger relative majority than was given him last time. We estimate the aggregate vote at about 500,000,—less rather than more than this,—and a majority of 25,000, with an aggregate vote of this character, will be relatively greater than the majority given three years ago. This, in brief, is the result. Achieved, as it was, in the face of the fears of many, and of the pretensions of our opponents, it is one of the most praiseworthy achievements we have had to record these many years. If we consider the discouragements, our success in this county should rank equal to that great majority which led LINCOLN to call it "the State of Allegheny."

We have not the time, now, to fully treat of the lessons of this victory. One of them is, that we have but to select good candidates and true, to succeed. The Republican party really has all its old hold upon the affections of the people. They prefer it to any other. Its noble record, and general devotion to the wishes of the people, are fully recognized and appreciated. It is only when it forgets the obligations it owes to the people, and permits improper candidates to obtain nominations, that the people turn against it. Last year was not, as we have repeatedly urged, marked by the turning away of the people from the party, but merely by a reminder that we must nominate suitable men for office. This hint has been gracefully taken this year, and the result is before us. The Democracy and our Prohibitionist friends received the impression that because last year we were beaten, we could be beaten again as easily as may be. We hope they will take the lesson given them philosophically. It is, that the people do trust the Republican party, and will maintain it in power, when it gives them good candidates. This lesson, well learned, will save them from making undue efforts to compass the impossible.

We congratulate our friends and commiserate our foes over the victory. May those who contributed to elect our ticket find our candidates faithful and true; and may those who fought them be solaced by their faithful devotion to the duties for which they were elected. We rejoice with [illegible] the election of candidates who [are] worthy of election.

AWAY FROM HOME.

The returns received from other States, up to the time we go to press, are somewhat confused, but indicate large Republican gains everywhere.

In Massachusetts, where RICE, the Republican candidate, had to contend against the regular Democratic nominee, a bolting Republican and a Prohibition candidate, the election of the regular Republican Gubernatorial nominee and the entire State ticket is conceded by a majority of from 5,000 to 7,000. It was a heavy fight and a signal triumph.

In New York, the Republicans made unexpected headway, and the latest returns seem to indicate that the State will go Republican—the party carrying the State ticket and two-thirds of the Legislature.

New Jersey, which is generally conceded as hopelessly Democratic, comes up nobly, and the Republicans gain a good working majority in the Legislature.

In Illinois and Minnesota, the Republicans sweep the field with handsome majorities and large gains in nearly every district.

In Maryland the Democrats, after a very hard struggle, succeeded in electing Carroll as Governor, but the Republican gains throughout State were large, and the vote of Baltimore only saved the Democratic ticket.

Virginia and Mississippi pull up on the side of the Conservatives—the latter giving a good majority, and the former showing nothing of any moment to spare for the Conservatives.

Altogether it was a good day for Republicans everywhere.

A DIAMOND OF ILL OMEN.

The Curse that the Kohinoor Carries with It—A Superstitious Warning to Queen Victoria.

A lady of great accomplishments, and one who has had considerable experience of life—none other than the wife of Captain Burton, the renowned African traveler—has just published a book, in which she foretells much peril to England, and especially to Queen Victoria, if that sovereign persists in retaining in her possession the celebrated Kohinoor diamond. That stone has always had a bad reputation. It is said, though without sufficient reason, to have been discovered in the mines of Golconda, and that in consequence of some terrible deed of cruelty perpetrated on its finder, his dying curses still cling to it. Mrs. Burton traces the history of the gem through many possessors, all of whom suffered some terrible disaster or came to a violent death. The first lost his kingdom, the second died in exile, others were strangled or assassinated in different ways. The fall of the once great Empire of Aurungzebe she attributes to the Mountain of Light. When Nadir Shah captured Delhi, he took away with him to Persia treasure and jewels of incalculable value, among them the Kohinoor. From the moment he reached Persia, "everything went wrong." The Emperor was soon after assassinated, and his jewels stolen. Its next possessor was poisoned; the two next had their eyes put out, and so on, disaster ever following the stone till it came into the possession of Runjeet Sing, the Lion of the Punjab. He died soon after; then his son was poisoned, and at brief intervals his grandson and great-grandson also were assassinated. Anarchy followed; then came the conquest of the Punjab, and so the diamond fell to its present destination.

This is all matter of history, and has been recounted by previous writers. But Mrs. Burton does not pretend to go only over the old ground again. She declares that she did not know the history of the gem until she had had a dream, wherein it was made known to her. She then looked into the question, though it must be allowed that she is not quite accurate in her account of the fortunes of the former proprietors. Many of them whom she does not mention were prosperous and powerful rulers; some died peaceable deaths, and one—the monarch of the Sikhs—so far from regarding the diamond as ill-omened, valued it as a holy relic, and bequeathed it to Juggernaut.

But Mrs. Burton is a firm believer in omens, and entreats the Queen to discard the stone, which she sometimes wears. She notes that the Lord Dalhouse, who sent it to the Queen, died soon afterward; that the Duke of Wellington, who gave the first stroke to the new cutting, lived but three months, and that Prince Albert next fell a victim to the ancient curse. Now, it is difficult to understand how a belief in the ill-omen of this diamond should have prevailed in the East. Apart from the facts connected with its history, its extensive value—since it is by far the purest diamond now in existence—would have induced some to malign it in order to possess it. But it is not so easy to account for the credulity or superstition, call it what we may, which we find displayed in a woman of such high culture, talent, and practical knowledge of the world as Mrs. Burton.

THE LATEST.

PHILADELPHIA, November 2.—The official majority of Philadelphia, every ward heard from, gives Hartranft 17,467 majority. The State is footed up at 21,600. Wright, Chairman of the State Democratic Committee, says Hartranft has been elected by a majority ranging between 10,000 and 15,000. Hoyt, Chairman of the Republican Committee, says:

Our majority is 20,000. We will certainly have that figure, and I believe it may reach 25,000. The city is in a blaze of excitement. Political clubs have been parading since 10 o'clock, and now (3 A. M.), the Hartranft Club is just going by with torchlights.

ERIE, PA., November 2.—Rawle gains in the city 659 over the vote of 1874.

Lycoming county estimated gives a Democratic majority of 1,000, a Democratic gain of 38.

Berks county gives about 6,300 Democratic majority, a Democratic gain of 1,000.

Snyder county estimated gives about 400 majority for Hartranft, a Republican gain of 35.

Pike county gives a Democratic majority of 850, a Democratic gain of 49.

Schuylkill county gives Pershing 1,900 majority, a Democratic gain of 233.

Montgomery county gives Pershing a majority of 250, a Democratic loss of 330.

PHILADELPHIA, November 2.—Bucks county gives Pershing 300 majority.

York county gives Pershing 3,000 majority.

Clinton county gives about 700 majority for Pershing, a Democratic loss of 235.

Cumberland county gives Pershing 800 majority, a gain of 105.

Columbia county gives 1,800 Democratic majority, a loss of 32.

Lebanon county gives Hartranft 1,400 majority, a gain of 162.

Susquehanna county gives Hartranft 700 majority, a Republican gain of 41.

Centre county gives Pershing 1,400 majority, a Democratic gain of 435.

Huntingdon county gives Pershing about 300 majority, a Democratic gain of 551.

Franklin county—About 300 Republican majority, a gain of 500.

Fayette County—Democratic majority of 650.

Montour county—The Republicans estimate the county Democratic by 250, a Republican gain of 430.

Adams county gives a Democratic majority of 525, a Democratic gain of 80.

Mifflin county: Democratic majority 220, Democratic gain 63.

Delaware county: About 1,800 Republican majority, a gain of 400.

Bucks county: About 350 Democratic majority; Philadelphia: Republican majority for Hartranft 18,509.

Lawrence county gives about 1,000 Republican majority, a Democratic gain of 459.

York county about 3,000 Democratic majority.

Clarion county about 1,100 Democratic majority, a Republican gain of 200.

Northampton county, Democratic majority 3,200, Democratic gain of 250.

Mercer county, Republican majority 700, a gain of 270.

Indiana county, Republican majority 700.

Centre county, about 1,400 Democratic, gain of 425.

The following is a summary of the counties as far as heard from:

Adams, Democratic majority 525, Democratic gain 80.

Bedford, Democratic majority 250, Republican gain 185.

Berks, Democratic majority 6,200, Democratic gain 185.

Bucks, Democratic majority 350, Republican gain 11.

Centre, Democratic majority 1,400, Democratic gain 435.

Clarion, Democratic majority 1,200, Republican gain 100.

Clinton, Democratic majority 700, Republican gain 255.

Columbia, Democratic majority 2,000, Democratic gain 167.

Cumberland, Democratic majority 800, Democratic gain 105.

Delaware, Republican majority 1,800, Republican gain 408.

Erie, Republican majority 2,000, Republican gain 1,535.

Fayette, Democratic majority 650, Democratic gain 47.

Franklin, Republican majority 300, Republican gain 574.

Huntingdon, Democratic majority 3,000, Democratic gain 49.

Indiana, Republican majority 1,900.

Lancaster, Republican majority 5,000, Republican gain 633.

Lawrence, Democratic majority 1,000, Democratic gain 459.

Lebanon, Republican majority 1,200, Republican gain 67.

Lehigh, Democratic majority 2,100, Democratic gain 274.

Lycoming, Democratic majority 1,000, Democratic gain 38.

Mercer, Republican majority 700.

Mifflin county, Democratic majority 220

Montour, Democratic majority 250.

Northampton, Democratic majority 3,200.

Philadelphia, Republican majority 18,000.

Pike, Democratic majority 850.

Schuylkill, Democratic majority 1,600.

Snyder, Republican majority 400.

Somerset, Republican majority 1,500.

Susquehanna, Republican majority 700.

Tioga, Republican majority 2,350.

York, Democratic majority 3,000.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3—1:30 A. M.—Full returns from all the wards in this city give Hartranft, for Governor, a plurality of 17,352. The Prohibition ticket polled 631 votes. The Republicans also elect their entire county ticket.

Returns thus far from the State show large Republican gains over the vote of 1874. While the Democrats gain in Berks, they loose ground in nearly all other Democratic counties thus far heard from. The Republicans lose very little in a few counties, and gain handsomely in Philadelphia, Allegheny, Lancaster, Chester, Beaver, and other Republican counties, placing the election of Hartranft and Rawle beyond a doubt by handsome majorities which may not fall short of 10,000.

2:10 A. M.—Col. McClure concedes the State to Hartranft by 22,000 majority. Outside of Philadelphia the vote will be very close.

Mifflin county gives 450 Democratic majority, a gain of 293.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, November 2.—Returns from seventy towns outside of Boston, which last year gave Gaston 15,188, against Talbot 15,887, return a vote for Gaston of 12,036, and Rice 14,904. Crapo's (Rep.) election in the First District for Congress is assured. Fourteen wards of this city give Rice 9,749, and Gaston 5,356

The Traveller's estimate of sixty-nine towns and wards, including Boston, places the vote for Rice at 20,063, Gaston 17,658, Baker 2,428, Adams 400, scattering 100, against last year's figures, viz.: Gaston 21,472, and Talbot 20,011—a Republican gain of over 5,000.

One hundred and fourteen towns outside of Boston return Rice 28,347 votes, Gaston 25,003, Baker 3,437, Adams 706, and Phillips 134. A heavy falling off in the vote is noticeable. The gain of Rice in Boston is considerable. Returns from all wards except the Twelfth give Rice 12,090, and Gaston 11,352. The friends of Rice already claim his election.

BOSTON, November 2.—One hundred and ninety-one towns are heard from. Rice has 46,598, Gaston (Dem.) 43,136, Baker (Prohibitionist) 5,180, Phillips 193, and Adams 1,139. The total vote of Boston this year for Rice is 13,100, and 13,186 for Gaston. The vote last year for Gaston was 15,988, and Talbot 8,697.

Rice has gained 6,255 in Boston alone. Present indications point to Rice's election.

BOSTON, November 2.—247 towns give Rice, Republican, 75,141; Gaston, 69,776, Baker, 7,320. A special from New Bedford places Crapo's (Republican) majority for Congress at 4,000. Rice carries Boston by seventy-eight votes.

The election of Rice is now generally conceded. The estimate of the Journal places his pleurality at from 5,000 to 7,000, and these figures may be increased or lessened by the complete returns. The vote for Baker, Prohibition candidate, will be between 7,000 and 8,000. Adams' will reach 15,000, and may go beyond this estimate. The entire Republican State ticket is probably elected.

BOSTON, November 2.—Complete returns from 322 towns in this State, but eighteen, give Rice 82,184, Gaston 77,349, Baker 8,904, and scattering 344; Rice's plurality, 4,835. These figures will be but slightly varied. The Republicans elect all their Councillors, and thirty-one Senators. The Democrats elect eight Senators. One district is doubtful. The Republicans gain heavy in Representatives. Crapo, Republican, is elected to Congress from the First district by over 4,600 majority.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 2.—Eighty-four city districts heard from give Bigelow 10,689, Seward 7,257, Olney 7,079, Phelps 10,733, Smythe 7,029, and Hackett 10,743. These returns cover every part of the city.

Returns from about one hundred districts in the interior show a Republican gain of 2,100. The present indications are that Bigelow will not go out of the city with over 25,000 majority.

One hundred and twenty out of one hundred and fifty-seven city election districts give Bigelow 14,783, Seward 10,468, Olney 9,772, Phelps 15,470, Smythe 9,682, and Hackett 15,503.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., November 2.—Democratic leaders from scattering returns claim King county by 7,000 majority on the State ticket. They also claim to have elected the Mayor.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The Tammany ticket is defeated in this city by a decided majority. The Republicans claim the State. Hackett's majority will not exceed 7,000. Thurlow Weed claims that the Republicans carried the State by a small majority. Morrissey is elected by over 2,000 majority.

NEW YORK, November 2.—246 city election districts give Bigelow 32,750, Seward 21,672, Olney 22,672, Phelps 32,572, Smythe 21,464, and Hackett 32,646.

Three hundred out of 557 city election districts show 14,000 majority for Bigelow, 72,200 for Phelps, and 14,000 for Hackett. The whole list of Tammany nominees is beaten.

Two hundred and ninety-one districts in the interior of the State give 5,300 Republican gain.

Three hundred and twenty-two city election districts give Bigelow 43,939, Seward 29,588, Olney 30,100, Phelps 42,965, Smythe 29,588, and Hackett 43,491.

Buffalo gives over 4,000 majority for Seward, a Republican gain of at least 3,600. Poughkeepsie gives Seward 206 majority, a Republican gain of 853. The Republican State ticket is believed to be elected.

Clinton county gives 400 Republican majority, a loss of 1,590. Chemung county gives 400 Democratic majority.

Midnight—Republican leaders at headquarters claim the State by several thousand, and two-thirds majority in both branches of the Legislature.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The county thus far shows a Republican gain of three Assemblymen, probably four, and one Senator. At Tammany Hall the defeat of the Democratic county and State ticket is conceded.

ALBANY, November 2.—The Democrats carry the city by 500, and the county by a largely reduced majority.

NEW YORK, November 2.—Dutchess county gives Seward 467 majority, a Republican gain of 387; Seneca county: Bigelow, 540 majority, a Republican gain of 100; Allegheny county: Seward, 2,300 majority; Rensauler county, 500 Democratic majority; Tioga county, 400 Republican majority; Putnam county, 200 Republican majority; Columbia county, complete, six districts, estimated: Bigelow, 324 majority, a Republican gain of over 1,000; Schenectady county, complete, Seward, 156 majority, a Republican gain of 541; Rensselaer county, complete: Seward, 300 majority, a Republican gain of over 1,100.

LATEST.

NEW YORK, November 2.—Complete returns from eighteen of the twenty-one Assembly districts in this city give Bigelow for Secretary of State 60,599, Seward 38,112, Smythe for Recorder 40,215, Hackett 59,256, Olney for District Attorney 40,784, and Phelps 58,225.

Kings county complete gives a majority for the Democratic State ticket of between 6,000 and 7,000, a Republican gain of about 6,000. The indications are that Daggett, Republican is elected Sheriff of Brooklyn by 2,000 majority. Rowe, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, is probably defeated. The New York Times estimates the Legislature as follows: Senate—22 Republicans and 10 Democrats; Assembly—80 Republicans and 48 Democrats, and claims the election of the entire Republican State ticket by 5,000 to 8,000 majority.

Tammany elects only one of the five Senators, and six of the twenty-one Assemblymen.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The total city vote, with the exception of a few election districts in the Twenty-first Assembly district, shows the following totals: Bigelow, 73,515; Seward, 46,059; Olney, 48,497; Phelps, 71,029.

NEW JERSEY.

NEW YORK, November 2.—Returns from New Jersey indicate both branches of the Legislature Republican. Essex county sends one Republican Senator and eight Assemblymen to one Democratic Assemblyman, a Republican gain of five. The Republicans gain two Assemblymen in Hudson and two in Mercer counties. The Republicans elected their Senators in Essex and Union counties, where the Democrats expected to be successful, and have also elected the Senator in Salem. The Democrats have elected Senators in Monmouth, Warren and Somerset. As it now stands, the Senate is a tie, with two counties—Camden and Gloucester, both Republican—to hear from.

CAMDEN, November 2.—The whole Republican ticket is elected in Camden county by majorities ranging from 500 to 1,500.

The Republicans have carried five out of the eight State Senators. Thirteen Senators hold over from last year, being seven Republicans and six Democrats. The Republican majority in the next Senate will therefore be three.

The last dispatches show that the Republicans have carried thirty members of the House of Assembly, with three Republican counties to hear from, which will probably swell the number to from 36 to 38. The House consists of sixty members, so that the Republicans will have a good working majority.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, November 2.—The municipal election to-day absorbed a greater degree of interest than any previously known. Good order generally prevailed, and a very large vote was polled. The contest for Mayor was squarely on the Sunday liquor question. Alexander Lewis was the regular Democratic nominee, and was at the head of the law and order ticket, as against W. G. Thompson, the nominee of the Republican Convention. The result is a decided victory for the former. At this writing Lewis' majority is estimated at considerably over 1,000.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, November 2.—The Fifth ward gives Carroll 433 majority; Second ward, Carroll, 1,300 majority; Eighth ward, Carroll, 1,141 majority; Seventeenth ward, Carroll, 1,412 majority; Fourth ward, Carroll, 1,319 majority; Fifteenth ward, Carroll, 1,722 majority; First ward, Carroll, 1,194 majority. Returns from half the city give Carroll over 5,000 majority. His total will [illegible] exceed that figure. Scattering returns from the State show large Republican gains, but Carroll's majority in the city is too heavy to overcome it, and he will be elected by a small majority. The entire Democratic State ticket is elected.

Annapolis—Carroll, 1,489; Harris, 638.

BALTIMORE, November 2.—Seventeen wards give Carroll for Governor 15,296 majority. The majority for the balance of the State ticket is about the same. The three remaining wards will probably give a small Democratic majority. Anne Arundle county gives about 700 Democratic majority on the State and county ticket.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, November 2.—In the election to-day for county officers thirty-seven out of eighty-two precincts in this city give 8,998 votes for Huck, the Republican candidate, 6,856 for Hessing, the opposition candidate, and 2,927 for Keeley, Independent Democrat.

Later reports from forty precincts in the city and nine towns show the following vote: Huck, 11,974; Hessing, 8,690; Keeley, 3,909; Huck's plurality, 3,333.

CHICAGO, October 2—11:15 P. M.—Seventy-four precincts give 19,732, Keeley 5,981, and Hessing 16,187. The opposition claim that the country towns will give Hessing nearly a solid vote, and hope by this aid to overcome the city majority for Huck, which seems inevitable now.

WATSEKA, November 2.—The indications are that John L. Hamilton, Republican, is elected Treasurer of Iroquois county by two hundred majority. The entire Republican ticket is elected.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, November 2.—Meagre returns from the State show gains for both the Conservatives and Republicans, the former, however, having the largest in some counties. In counties where the Republicans have no candidate they are supporting the Independents. It is more than probable that the general result will not materially alter the complexion of the situation.

RICHMOND, VA., November 2.—General Bradley Johnson is elected to the State Senate by 200 majority. The two other Conservatives are elected by a larger majority. The Conservatives carry the City of Lynchburg by a small majority. Norfolk City elects all the Conservatives, there being no opposition. The Republican gains in Norfolk county probably elect J. D. Bradley, Republican, to the Senate, and Cannon, a negro, to the House. Portsmouth elects a Conservative to the House.

MISSISSIPPI.

MEMPHIS, November 2.—The Avalanche's Jackson (Miss.) special says: The election passed off quietly. Returns from all parts of the State indicate an overwhelming Conservative victory. They have carried every doubtful county, and have a decided majority in the House and Senate. Lamar, Singleton, Hooker and Mooney are elected to Congress. The Republicans concede the State.

JACKSON, MISS., November 2.—The election passed off very peaceably. No disturbance was reported at any point. The Democrats carry the State by 10,000. They have a decided majority in both Houses, and elected four Congressional delegates.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, November 2.—Returns from thirty-five towns and precincts give Taylor (Democratic Reform) for Governor 386 majority—a Republican gain of 475.

Returns from the city of Milwaukee and eighty-five towns give Taylor, Democratic Reform candidate for Governor, 92 majority, a Republican gain of 10,017.

OREGON.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 2.—A dispatch from Portland says later election returns materially reduce the majority for Lane, Democrat, for Congress. A dispatch from Salem says the returns indicate the election of Warren, Republican, by a small majority.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, November 2.—Scattering returns received up to 9 o'clock indicate the election of the whole Republican State ticket, with the possible exception of Treasurer, by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 8,000.

LEAVENWORTH, November 2.—The whole Republican county ticket is probably elected by about 300 majority. No returns are received from the State, and nothing can be given in regard to the results tonight.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1875.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 28¼.

BONDS at Frankfort, new 5s, 99½.

EARTHQUAKE shocks seem to have developed to quite a considerable extent, in the Southwest. The election of yesterday was of the nature of a political earthquake to the Democracy.

A NEW freight tariff is reported to be agreed upon between the several railroads running West. As Pittsburgh is not usually included in these arrangements, we are not greatly concerned.

THE returns from Massachusetts, at this writing, indicate the election of RICE for Governor. This proving true, it will illustrate afresh, our experience in 1862-63. Then, one year, the elections went against us, and the following year, all went in our favor. So the present year is in agreeable contrast with last.

THE Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company has followed the example of Erie, and asked for a Receiver. This is a new plan, and is likely to become altogether too popular. It saves paying interest on bonds or dividends on stock, and so enables the road to run along, paying merely its current expenses, till better times shall come.

IT proves that the case of BRIGHAM YOUNG was not gotten rid of so easily as had been expected. The decree of Court fixing the alimony for ANN ELIZA, the wife, is being enforced on the Saint, and there is little prospect of a let-up this time. He is under arrest for refusing to comply with the order of the Court, and there is every indication that this will continue till the money is forthcoming.

WE had intended to refer to the valuable services rendered the Republican party, in this county particularly, by Hon. J. F. UPDEGRAFF, of Mount Pleasant, Ohio, who has spoken at several points in the county since the close of the Ohio election. He is a peculiarly versatile and able speaker, and the Republican party in Pennsylvania owes him thanks for his effective and valuable service.

ROYALTY is of a visiting turn these days. Quite a delegation of German, or Danish royalties, including the King and Queen of Denmark and daughter, and others, are on a visit to England, the Princess of Wales doing the honors of their reception, in the absence of her husband. Time evidently hangs heavy on the hands of these royal people, and travel is one of the readiest ways of dissipating it.

THE CITY ELECTIONS.

Every election is an event by itself. It now seems probable that no election can be regarded as a criterion for another. The theory, followed by so many politicians, that the figures of one election furnish reliable data for another, has proven, time and again, of little value. There are so many new influences developed with every passing year that every election is an event by itself. This fact was especially illustrated in the election of yesterday. We have not, at this writing, intelligence from other parts of the State, but the voting in this city was done under new and peculiar circumstances. It was a quiet, orderly election, being, in this particular, like many others, but unlike those held at a time when excitement runs high. In Allegheny, reports were rife that the LINDSEY delegates were voting for PATTERSON, and one of these, who remained true to our entire ticket, stated in our hearing that he was offered $50 to work for PATTERSON. Thus it seems probable that money was very freely used to control results, so far as the Shrievalty was concerned.

Another feature of yesterday's election was the break in the Prohibitionist vote. It became evident to the leaders, early in the day, that they could not poll a vote that would show that they possessed much strength, and in order to conceal their real weakness, the policy was adopted of casting a portion of their vote for PERSHING. How many votes they would have polled, we cannot say; nor have we, at this time, the means of determining how much they added to PERSHING's vote. Rumors had been current for several days, touching some financial transactions between Mr. BROWNE, their candidate for Governor, and soldiers of the Roundhead Regiment, of which he had been Chaplain, and these seriously impaired his strength with the honest, sincere temperance element. We hesitated to publish these reports, not being assured of their correctness till the day before election, and did not use them then, lest they should be considered election day stories. We do not find any necessity for repeating them now, the election being over, and merely refer to the fact that to some extent, in this county, and in Mercer and Lawrence counties, the report cut down Mr. BROWNE's vote.

The election, yesterday, was marked by great independence on the part of voters. It has generally been considered, that once a person is induced to break over party lines, and vote for another person on a ticket, he can usually be induced to vote the entire ticket. Not so this year, however. There are very many instances in which special preferences were expressed without breaking away from more than one or two candidates on a ticket. And this seems to have been the case in all Western Pennsylvania. It shows that the people are not party-bound, but that they closely observe the claims presented for candidates, and the merits of the different persons, and shrewdly determine their preferences. This is one of the important lessons taught by the divided vote cast. It is not a lesson of general results, but of the spirit of the people, and of the motives that inspired their cause. The election yesterday was full of healthy signs, and gave us lessons that we will do well to heed. These are, chiefly that if we present measures and men that deserve to be sustained, we will readily command the votes of the people.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

The labors of the great revivalists have fairly begun in Brooklyn, and the press, both religious and secular, is giving much space to reports and comments. In one particular, at least, they are already successful,—that of attracting large audiences of interested hearers. It is evident, too, that the services have produced a profound impression, in several instances. For example, at the women's meeting, several hundred proceeded to the inquiry room, when the invitation was extended, all under the influence of deep feeling, and the men's meeting was productive of like results. Of course, much speculation is indulged in as to the causes,—whether the results are produced by merely human influences, or whether the supernatural element is largely present. Those who view the subject from a merely human standpoint, are divided in opinion as to whether MOODY's preaching or SANKEY's singing is most productive of results. It is a significant circumstance that opinion is divided on this point, proving that the two are fellow workmen, the one necessary to the other. It is the combination of qualities that makes up the human influence so potent in this evangelistic work. MOODY's preaching, while not what is usually termed eloquent, or even smooth of diction, or graceful in language, is remarkably direct, full of common sense, and highly illustrated by tender, appropriate, pathetic anecdotes or facts. That it goes directly to the hearts and sympathies of the masses, is indisputable. A person, cold of temperament, and of fine sensibilities, who listens from a critical, æsthetic standpoint, will probably be shocked, and wonder what there is, in the plain, crude speech of the evangelist, to produce such wonderful results. But the masses are not cultured listeners. They respond to earnest, searching words, however uncouth they be.

SANKEY's singing undoubtedly fits in with, and supplements the preaching of MOODY. This, too, has been criticised, as lacking in the artistic element. He is said to have a "trick" of throwing his voice from a high to a low key,—from a tremulous aspirate to a low bass,—and this is claimed to be the secret of his power. We do not believe it for a moment. Not having heard him, we cannot, of course, pass personal judgment on his performances; but from what we read and hear, we suspect the secret of his power lies in three things: 1. The thorough appropriateness of the pieces he sings. They chime in with the sermon; are tender and commanding, as the occasion requires; and so sure to deepen and intensify the impressions the sermon has already made. 2. They are backed by genuine feeling on the part of the singer. Mr. SANKEY is represented to be a person of warm religious feeling, and has grown into such earnest sympathy with his fellow-laborer that he is, no doubt, ever ready to respond to the sentiments enunciated from the platform. Hence his songs are marked by deep fervor, which very naturally communicates itself to the audience. 3. The power of his voice. It is not a new fact that the human voice, when attuned to music, has strange power over audiences. That Mr. SANKEY's voice has much melody and power is fully conceded; and this partially accounts for the fact that simple songs, frequently repeated, carry with them so much power and force. So much for the merely human side of the question.

Those who have studied the history and peculiarities of revival efforts, are ready to admit that something more than merely human influences must be included in fully estimating the results reached. There are certain aspirations, common to the race, that reach out into the eternal, and cling to the hope of a happy immortality. Whether these aspirations form a proper argument for immortality, as SENECA reasoned, in his day, or whether they are inspired by some supernatural influence, is one of the mooted questions between Scientists and theologians. But that there are such aspirations, and that they are confirmed with a belief, on the part of those who have been the subjects of even the crudest Christian teaching, in another life beyond the present, is indisputable. These two facts open up the vast range of motive and sentiment, upon which the Evangelists largely work. They are skillful in touching the sentiment and feeling involved, and move the hearts of the people with masterly touch. Beyond all this, however, there is still another element, which it is not the province of a secular journal to largely discuss. It is what is called the spiritual influence,—a form of the supernatural,—which is accepted by the Evangelists as supplementing their work, and is the chief element in their success. They cultivate an apparently sincere and humble reliance on Divine aid, and invoke it as the only thing that can give permanent success. Their friends attest their undoubted sincerity in all this, and claim that they are child-like, simple men, who do not seek personal reputation, but simply and earnestly seek to promote the work of drawing the people to an acceptance of the religious life. It is gratifying to note that their work has begun so well, and the hope may be indulged, by all, that their success will be greater here than it was in Europe.

PERSONAL.

SANTA ANNA has gone into the poultry business, and will now raise hens instead of rebellions, though he confesses that he'd like one more little rebellion.

THE last surviving child of John C. Calhoun, Mrs. Floride Clemson, died recently in South Carolina. She was a lady of high social and domestic excellence and literary attainments.

THE General Manager of the Toledo, Peoria & Warsaw Railroad has given William Reigart, an engineer, a handsome gold watch for having killed no stock during the year.

MR. PLIMSOLL, the "Sailors' Friend," is at present going the round of the Black Sea ports, to see how the recent enactment against the loading of grain cargoes in bulk is enforced.

THE Princess of Wales will spend a few weeks with the Queen at Windsor, and then make a prolonged visit to her parents at Copenhagen, arriving there in season for the holiday festivities.

TO THE wife of Judge Thomas J. Gunn, who resides three miles south of Smithville, in this county, on the road leading from Smithville to Liberty, was born a boy baby, on the 29th day of September last, the mother being in the 77th year of her age. The baby weighed eight pounds at the time of its birth, and is a hearty, well developed child.—Liberty (Mo.) Advance.

THE executors of Edwin Forrest announce that the Edwin Forrest Home for Superannuated Actors, at Springbrook, is so far advanced that inmates will be received in a few months. This place comprises 100 acres of land, and the large stone mansion standing on it is to be converted into the contemplated home. The only new building to be erected at present is a library which will cost about $25,000.

MISS FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE wrote as follows in response to an invitation to attend the Balaklava banquet, recently held in London: "I beg that you will be so good as to thank 'The Committee Organizing the Balaklava Banquet' for the honor that they have done me in inviting me to be present at the anniversary of the charge, whose wounded we received at Scutari; and say for me how deeply I regret that it is impossible for me to accept it, as I have been for years entirely a prisoner to my room from illness and overwork (which work still I do, thank God), but that I am ever the army's and their faithful servant.'

MR. GLADSTONE thus puts his veto on a healthy crop of rumors about himself: "There is not a word of truth in the statements—1. That I have received a proposal from Turkey in respect to its finances; 2. That I have made any declaration on the subject of the political future, other than was announced to the world eighteen months ago; 3. That I have written about the Church of England in the new Church Quarterly Review or elsewhere. I have written an article in that review respecting the Church and State question in Italy, which contains some (I think) interesting information on the subject of patronage and popular election of clergy."

THE claret of 1875 promises to be a wine of exceptional excellence. Though the yield of 1874 was a large one, that of 1875 will be much larger, and the vine-growers have seldom had a finer year, the weather having been propitious and the fermentation satisfactory.

IT is said that the German Army is about to adopt an electric light for night signalling, which will use the clouds (when there are any) as a screen on which to project the signals. The apparatus was tried in Berlin recently, the light given being so powerful that ordinary writing could be read at the distance of one mile. The experiments were successful, and startled the people in the streets, who saw the signals in the heavens but knew not whence they proceeded.

JOSEPH SCHLIEF, a saloon keeper at Berea, Ohio, was assaulted in his saloon, last Monday evening, by Cyrus Carman and Patrick Carney, who were intoxicated. Carman beat Schlief on the head with a beer faucet until insensible, inflicting injuries which will probably prove fatal. Carman and Carney escaped.

EXAMPLES of "youthful depravity" constantly occur in the daily annals of crime. In the town of Scranton, Pa., Hallowe'en was disturbed by a dreadful tragedy, in which a mere boy, with undoubted murderous intent, plunged a knife into the heart of another, of little more than his own age, causing instant death.

HARRY GHAUL deliberately shot and killed Joseph Smith, alias Little Smith, in a saloon at Rochester, on Monday. There was a dispute about paying for drinks, and Ghaul was sent for to settle it. He brought a revolver with him, and as soon as he crossed the threshhold shot Smith dead, the ball going through the neck and spinal marrow. Ghaul was arrested.

A KANSAS CITY fisherman, who recently had set afloat several lines attached to bottles, and baited with frogs, and had followed them in a skiff for several miles down the river without getting a bite, was chagrined to discover that, owing to the insufficient "leading" of the lines, the frogs had swam to the surface, and had been sitting on the bottles for the whole distance.

A CENSUS just taken of the beggars of Paris gives the total number at 65,250. Of these 25,480 are women, 14,500 men, 13,060 girls, and 12,210 boys. They are catalogued under several heads; the mendicants, who do not demand money; the men who play on instruments; the disguised beggars who sell matches, pins and buttons; and the beggars of the Barriere, who are always crying of starvation, looking for their parents, moaning the loss of their employer's money, etc.

Necessity of a Scientific Library for Pittsburgh.

With all her vast manufacturing establishments, in which are employed processes largely due to scientific investigation, Pittsburgh does not possess a respectable scientific library. Scientists do not usually concern themselves with the practical applications of their discoveries. Nevertheless, every new discovery is, sooner or later, applied to some practically useful purpose; and not unfrequently gives rise to new industries. It is, therefore, sound policy to encourage the cultivation of pure science from which no immediate practical results are to be secured.

In every large town there may be found a greater or less number of individuals engaged in some particular line of scientific investigation. A specialist is frequently under the necessity of consulting numerous and costly works. Few are able to have these in their private library; and, even in many of the largest public libraries, one will often look in vain for what he wants.

One great advantage of having a library devoted solely to works of a scientific character is, that it would bring together many who are now insolated, and enable them to work more effectively. The stimulus it might give to young and ambitious men to take up original research would be a not inconsiderable gain. No matter how divergent their lines of investigation may be, all will derive mutual encouragement and assistance by coming together. The moral effect of that elan which often carries an army on to victory, is no less effective on a body of scientific workers.

That a larger and larger proportion of students in our high schools and colleges will, with each succeeding year, have their attention turned to the physical sciences is more than probable; and it is much to be desired that every facility should be provided for them at home. The growing interest everywhere felt in the cultivation of natural science certainly warrants something of the kind.

The great majority of scientific works, including periodicals and transactions of learned societies, are in English, French and German. All of these should be provided. As every specialist is able to suggest works in his particular line, it would not be difficult, in time, to have a very complete library, perhaps, even rivaling that of the British Museum.

Teachers, ministers, physicians, scientists and students, besides many others, would all have an interest in such a library. No doubt, among the large German population of the two cities, may be found a considerable number of persons who, having enjoyed the advantages of the splendid universities in their fatherland, would both prize a library of this kind and render most valuable aid in its management.

That something might be done to popularize science, members of the library might, from time to time, give lectures, illustrated by experiments when necessary, on their respective specialties. These lectures should either be free, or so nearly so that all could attend. In this way much might be done to awaken an interest in a very important branch of human knowledge, and shape the destiny of many an undeveloped genius. J. H. L.

A TRAGIC BRIDAL TOUR.

A Newly Married Couple Drowned in the Susquehanna.

A Binghamton, (N. Y.) dispatch of Nov. 1 says:—A most distressing drowning accident occurred in the Susquehanna river at Unadilla on Thursday last, four persons meeting their death, including a bride and groom, who were on their wedding tour. The particulars of the catastrophe are as follows:—Maurice and William Goodrich, of Worcester, N. Y., were married to sisters in that village about a week ago. They were on their way home from their bridal tour, and stopped at Unadilla to visit the family of Mr. Joseph Morehouse, a miller, whose wife was a sister of the two brides. Thursday the bridal party and Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse went out boating on the river. A movement of some one of the party caused the boat to careen to one side, when the ladies sprang in fright to the other side of the boat. This sudden movement caused the very catastrophe it was intended to avert, and throwing the entire party into the water, which is very deep at that spot. Mr. Morehouse, being an old sailor and an excellent swimmer, at once seized his wife and Mrs. Maurice Goodrich, and would undoubtedly have succeeded in saving them had they not lost all presence of mind. As it was, the ladies wound their arms about Mr. Moorhouse, and he was not only unable to give them any assistance, but was himself dragged to the bottom, and the three were drowned together. Maurice Goodrich, being encumbered with a heavy overcoat, sunk in a short time, and shared the fate of the other three. William Goodrich had removed his overcoat and coat, having been rowing the boat. He was a good swimmer, and at once seized his wife as she appeared on the surface, and by pushing her ahead of him, and repeatedly lifting her from the water, succeeded in reaching the shore with her. She grasped hold of a clump of bushes and supported herself, while her husband swam rapidly back to render aid to the others, if possible. It was too late, however, as they had all disappeared beneath the surface.

THE BOAT WAS CAPSIZED,

SEARCH FOR THE REMAINS.

The news of the shocking tragedy spread rapidly through the village, and hundreds of people turned out to search for the bodies of the drowned persons. Those of Mr. Goodrich and Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse were found the same day near where they sunk. The body of Mrs. Goodrich was not recovered at last accounts. It is feared that the rescued bride, Mrs. William Goodrich, will become insane over the death of her sister. The two young ladies were twins, as were the Goodrich brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse leave several children. The tragic affair has cast a great gloom over the community where it occurred.

Effects of Heat on Steel.

At the recent session of the Institute of Mining Engineers at Cleveland, Mr. William Metcalf read a paper on "The Effects of Heat on Steel." He preceded his remarks by referring to the shrinkage of iron, which to some extent had been discussed before the close of the morning session. The following points were deducted from his remarks on this subject: Pig-iron made from magnetic ores, while possessing a high degree of tenacity, shrinks badly, and that kidney ores produce an iron equally tenacious, but liable to even greater shrinkage than the former. During the late war the speaker, as superintendent of the Fort Pitt Foundry, where the great Rodman guns were cast, had a wide experience in the selection and mixture of irons suitable for large castings requiring great accuracy, and he found the best results followed the use of Hanging Rock (Ohio) pig-metal. Melting in reverberatory instead of cupola furnaces was also practiced at the Fort Pitt Works, the consumption of coal being about one-quarter ton to the ton of metal, and the tensile strain to the iron was 28,000 to 30,000 pounds to the square inch, while the same metal melted in the ordinary cupola furnace fell 5,000 pounds short of this. His communication on steel described the mode of testing steel at Pittsburgh. A bar of steel marked off in lengths of say an inch, is heated at one end to the scintillating point; this gives a graduated heat throughout the bar, which is then broken in lengths as marked off, and the effects of the different degrees of heat is observed by the fracture. By this means the degree of heat a particular melt of steel can stand is arrived at.

THE POPE AND VISITORS.

Latest Address of Pius IX—President Grant's Speech.

A Rome letter to the N. Y. Times says: Many "pilgrims" continue to arrive in Rome from foreign countries to tease the Pope through his prison bars. The Holy Father has been for some time silent; but the visitors from Belgium, to whom he gave audience a few days ago, drew out of him a speech, which is published in the newspapers.

The Pope said to his pilgrims: "It grieves me, while I am overcome with the joy produced by your finely-expressed assurances, as well as those that come to me from other parts, that I am obliged always to repeat words of lamentation and sadness on account of the condition in which the Church finds itself. But am I able to use different language?—I, constituted by Jesus Christ the first sentinel in the mystical vineyard? With the help of God, may His vicar never be reduced to the condition of a dumb dog. Oh, may the whole world know that if I lament the ills that the Church suffers, it is because God commands me, and it is my sacred duty to obey Him. The Church, robbed, oppressed and in chains, turns toward its persecutors, and especially to those who guide the destinies of nations, and raising a cry of anguish, repeats the words of its Divine Founder—cur me cædis? Why, in certain countries of Europe, are my children, because they are my children—that is, children of truth—exiled, fined, and condemned to the misery of prisons? Why are the rights taken away from me which Jesus Christ has given me?—freedom to teach and select the priests to form the hierarchy; and why hinder the Bishops from removing the stains and curing the wounds which afflict the sanctuary, rendering them impotent not only to punish, but, more than that, distributing rewards and honors to those who merit exemplary chastisement? Why is it permitted here, here in Rome; in the centre of Catholicism, to exercise freely every false religion; allowing to the masters of error to teach all sorts of heresy, and at the same time to pester and torture clerical teachers, and especially nuns, with treacherous examinations, setting up judges in matters about which they know nothing, following their own caprices. Are you, Governors of Italy, pretend also to have the control of the ecclesiastical benefices, claiming to have received them by inheritance; not remembering that authority is not to be acquired in such a way, and much less by usurpation. These, and many others, are the demands that the Church makes, to which no response is given, or if any, with satirical disrespect."

SECTARIAN INSTRUCTION IN AMERICA.

The words spoken by General Grant against sectarian public school instruction have been received here with a general clapping of hands. It is now discovered that the people of the United States are to be dragged into the angry controversy which the Roman Catholics have everywhere raised. The Liberal party hail with gladness the accession to their ranks of so robust an ally. All seem to be convinced that the worst has not yet been seen, and the turning point will only be reached after a conflict of material forces in a war which the Roman Catholics are laboring to bring on. The doctrine preached by all faithful to the Vatican is that the temporal power of the Pope is not relinquished, and must never be given up. The struggle as all so well know, is one between the spirit of progress and the science of the present, and the scowling superstition and implacable ambition to rule on the side of the hierarchy. The Government is laboring as hard as it can to keep the peace, and is willing to let the Pope scold at it, and at everybody and everything, as long as his words do not have the effect to bring on a scratching and biting conflict. The Italians, through their journals, are trying to laugh the Pope out of his folly of opposition to the progress of society, but so far with little effect. The liberal journals, or those that freely examine and criticise everything in which a flaw is to be found, are in the largest numbers, yet the stricter members of the clerical party do not read them.

SERMON ON FASHIONS.

Brigham Young on the Sisters' Ruffles, Bows, Puffs, and Trimmings.

Brigham Young recently preached on the fashions, and here is an extract from his sermon: "Now, then, leaving the useless things which the brethren use—tea, coffee, tobacco, beer, whisky, etc., I will allude to some that the sisters use and wear, such at tea, coffee, snuff, tobacco, opium, and then the ruffles, bows, puffs, trimmings, and this, that and the other they wear on their dresses that are useless. What shall we do in regard to those things? My senses tell me that the children of Zion should forsake every needless fashion and custom which they now practice. My wives dress very plainly, but I sometimes ask them the utility of some of the stripes and puffs which I see on their dresses. I remember asking a lady this question once, and inquired if they kept the bed-bugs and flies away. Well, if they do that they are useful, but if they do not, what use are they? None whatever. Now, some ladies will buy a cheap dress, say a cheap calico, and they will spend from five to fifteen dollars' worth of time in making it up, which is wasting so much of the subsistence which God has given them on the lust of the eye, and which should be devoted to a better purpose. I have had an observation made to me, which I will relate; I have never done it, but I believe I will now. It has been said to me, 'Yes, Brigham, we have seen ladies go to parties in plain home-made dresses, but every man was after the girls who had on a hundred dollars worth of fol-de-rol, and they would dance with every woman and girl except the one in a plain dress, and they would let her stay by the wall the whole evening.' It may be in some cases, but should not be. It adds no beauty to a lady, in my opinion, to adorn her with fine feathers. When I look at a woman I look at her face, which is composed of her forehead, cheek, nose, mouth, and chin, and I like to see it clean, her hair combed neat and nice, and her eyes bright and sparkling; and if they are so, what do I care what she has on her head, or how or of what material her dress is made? Not the least in the world. If a woman is clean in person, and has a nice clean dress, she looks a great deal better when washing her dishes, making her butter or cheese or sweeping her house, than those who, as I told them in Prevo, walked the streets with their spanker jibs flying. It adds no beauty to a lady or gentleman to have a great many frills on their dresses or coats; beauty must be sought in the expression of the countenance, combined with neatness and cleanliness and graceful manners. All the beauty which nature bestows is exhibited, let the dress be ever so plain, if the wearer of it be only neat and comely. Do fine feathers look well? Yes, they are very pretty, but they look just as well on these dolls, these fixed-up machines which they have in the stores, as anywhere else; they certainly add nothing to the beauty of a lady or gentleman, as far as I ever saw."

A French Story About Nelson.

Any facts relating to the life of Nelson always have an interest for English readers; and it is gratifying to learn that the Paris Figaro has just contributed some new and valuable information concerning the professional career of our favorite hero. Promotion in the English navy, it states correctly enough, goes by seniority among officers who have attained the rank of post-captain (capitaine de vaisseau). It would seem, then, that in the summer or autumn of the year 1805 the British ministry was anxiously looking out for an able officer to whom it might safely entrust the defence of our coasts. Now it had guessed that Nelson was a man of considerable abilities. ("Or, le Ministere avait devine Nelson.") But how was the Government to make use of his services? Nelson was but a captain; and, worse, was only fifty-third on the list. The Admiralty (of that day) "did not hesitate." My Lords named fifty-three "admirals," placed fifty-two on half-pay, and gave the command of the fleet to Nelson, who, a few weeks later, adds the French journalist with almost a touch of enthusiasm, "destroyed our navy at Trafalgar." Curiously enough, there is a similar incident in French history which has unaccountably escaped the notice of MM. Thiers and Lanfrey—namely, the defeat ablye Imperialists at Austerlitz was probably due to the promptitude and decision of the then French Government in naming Colonel Bonaparte, over the heads of many senior officers, to the command of the army of Germany.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A Washington Wedding.

The ceremony was performed by a colored clergyman of the Methodist Church. The bridal party and a few invited guests assembled in the parlors. The clergyman opened two sheets of foolscap, from which he said the service and prayers. "We are assembled here," he said, "to jine Miss Beck and Mr. Sims in the holy order of matrimony. If any one knows why they should not be married, let them speak now, or the objection will be invalid and of no account." As no one did object, he proceeded with the utmost gravity to marry the couple. He never addressed them by their Christian names, but always as Miss Beck, and Mr. Sims, or this lady, or that gentleman, delivering quite a harange. Then he made a characteristic prayer. At its conclusion he stated by what authority he was empowered to marry ladies and gentlemen, adding: "And now, Miss Beck, you are no longer Miss Beck, but Mrs. Sims. Mr. Sims, I introduce you to Mrs. Sims."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

ZACH. TAYLOR'S TOMB.

The Long-Neglected Resting-Place of the Ex-President Cared For at Last.

[From the Louisville Ledger.]

It is with pleasure that we mention the fact that the long-neglected tomb of ex-President Zachary Taylor has at last received the attention of considerate relatives. A number of workmen at the instance of Mr. Richard H. Taylor, of this city, a nephew of Gen. Taylor, have been busily engaged for several days past in giving the last resting place of our twelfth President a presentable appearance.

The work having reached completion, a reporter paid a visit to the Taylor cemetery, about five miles from the city, on the Brownsboro turnpike. To one who had seen this little city of dead, some months ago, the change that has lately been wrought would scarcely be credited. The iron gate that bars the intruder from the grounds has been robbed of its rusty coating, and now, in its covering of newly painted black, presents an inviting presence. The narrow walk to the President's tomb has been cleared of its numerous impediments, and has been widened considerably.

The greatest transformation, however, has been effected in the interior of the sepulchre. The loose and jutting stones have been properly replaced, and the rough front has been ground down to a smooth and polished surface. New earth has been placed in the cavities, and the summit has been cleared of the quantity of briars and brambles which covered it. A glance at the scene around informs the stranger that tender and loving hands have been employed about the other graves in the inclosure. Mounds that have not been visible for years now appear under the shadow of spotless marble slabs, and here and there a slowly withering floral offering tells the tribute the living have paid to the honored dead.

Having in his possession a key of the President's tomb, our reporter entered the marble portal. He found himself in a room of solid masonry, about eight feet square. The reflection of the fast sinking sun cast a mellow light into the chilly apartment and disclosed two coffins on either side of the entrance. They were constructed of stained poplar, and rested upon marble bases. The one on the left, which contained all that was mortal of the Kentucky chieftain, was wrapped in a black oil cloth; the other, on the left, held the remains of his faithful consort. At the rear of the room is a life-like bust of General Taylor, in plaster of Paris, reared on a pedestal of the same material. It has grown dingy with age, and, owing to its damp resting place, is rapidly becoming a victim to Time's ravages.

On leaving the sepulchre our reporter noticed that the inscription, which before was almost obliterated, had been brought out in bold relief. It reads:

Z. TAYLOR.
BORN—Nov. 24, 1774.
DIED—July 9, 1850.

Mr. Taylor and his assistants deserve much credit for bringing about this long-desired change, and we know that all who revere the memory of the valiant General, extend him their hearty commendation.

It is the purpose of this gentleman to make an effort to have the remains of President Taylor and those of his father, Colonel Richard Taylor, removed to the Capitol burying ground at Frankfort.

SINGULAR AMPUTATION.

A Drunken Spree and How it Ended—A Wife Saws off the Leg of Her Husband.

Sunday afternoon, says the Cleveland Leader, a man whose name could not be learned, and who with his family lives near the corner of Williams alley and Fountain street, got into a quarrel with his wife. Both were in that state known as "two-thirds seas over," but instead of feeling happy, it affected them just the opposite. They pitched into each other, tore each other's hair, and raised such a rumpus generally that the neighbors sent for some of the boys at the engine house to go down and put a stop to the disturbance. Some of the boys did go down, but when they got there the trouble had subsided, and to all appearance "peace held sway supreme." As the sequel will show, however, it was not so peaceful as it seemed. By some diplomatic course or other the woman succeeded in getting her lord and master to bed. Her next move was to get a bottle of chloroform which was near at hand, and administer a nice little dose to her husband, which soon put him to sleep and made him wholly oblivious to what was going on around him. The next act was to procure an old saw, with which she proceeded to do a job in surgery that would put a professional surgeon to blush. Beginning at the lower end of the man's leg, she commenced sawing until she had severed that useful appendage in twain. He, totally unconscious of what was going on, slept on, "the sleep of the innocent," while she, after the job was done, looked on, watching his life-blood ebb slowly away. Somehow or other the neighbors outside got wind of what was going on inside the house and rushed in, in time to stop the bleeding, but at last accounts it was a question whether the man would live or not. For some time past the man has been employed on the new county buildings, now in process of erection.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
WEDNESDAY, November 3, 1875. }

Yesterday was given more entirely to elections than to finance. Yet a very fair amount of business was transacted at the banks, indicative of the fact that business is anything but stagnant. There is a growing volume of business in all the smaller departments of trade that indicates favorably for the immediate future. Should the compromise between the puddlers and manufacturers be perfected, we have also the prospect of at least moderately good times among the workers in iron in our midst. The election over, we can, in a day or two, forecast more accurately the tendencies of the times.

The New York Herald says of stock operations in that city: No comment need be made with reference to the course of the stock market to-day, the changes in price being sufficient to warrant whatever inferences may be drawn. The strength of Lake Shore, and sympathetically of several other securities, was due entirely to the report—but whether it was circulated for speculative purposes we are unable to tate—that the company is to enter into a "pooling" arrangement with Michigan Central, Erie and Fort Wayne.

There are not a few, however, who continue to indulge the belief, and not without reason, that the present movement in two or three "fancies" has no other object than the profit that will accrue to a small minority of operators, whose principal aim at the present moment is to transfer to other buyers the great bulk of stock that has accumulated in their endeavor to inaugurate and control a "bull" campaign. There is no more reason for unusual strength in the stock market now than existed six weeks ago. Real values have not changed, and business prospects are not perceptibly improved. No little risk, therefore, attends the temptation held out to buy anything at the present time, for until the process of liquidation has ceased, and we know with tolerable certainty that the market is not to be disturbed by heavy failures and other indications of "a dry rot," it is not probable that the capitalists of the country will so lose their sense of shrewdness as to sustain any stock in simple obedience to the "matched orders" that advance the price of one or two, while all the others are left, so to speak, to the charity of the street.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, November 2, 1875.

There was but little else talked about except the election, business, by many, being looked upon as a secondary consideration, and the leading merchandize markets, therefore, were dull, and presented no new characteristics deserving of special notice.

APPLES—Are in much larger supply, and although not quotably lower, yet the market lacks firmness. Fine Michigan and New York fruit, in large bbls, $4.75a4.25. Prime, $3a3,50, as to quantity and size of barrels.

BUTTER—The market continues dull, especially for common mixed stock, of which there is an over-supply, and prices are weak and lower; prime to choice rolls, 25a27c; extra creamery Butter, 28a30c; solid packed, 15a20c.

BEANS—Mediums, quoted, in a jobbing way, at $1,75a1,80; and navies, at $1,90a2.

CHEESE—The market continues rather slow, and prices are easy but unchanged; prime Ohio Factory, 13½a14c for August and 14a14½c for September make. Prime New York Goshen, 15c.

EGGS—Fresh, guaranteed as such, 27a28c; pickled, 20a25c. Market quiet.

FLOUR—The market continues quiet and unchanged. Old red winter wheat, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7; old spring wheat, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7. Rye Flour, $5,50a5,75. Buckwheat, 2½a3c per pound.

GROCERIES—The grocery trade is only fair, and the leading staples are devoid of any new feature to which reference has not previously been made in these columns.

GRAIN—The grain markets continue dull, and with liberal receipts and a light demand, the supply is accumulating, and prices are easier. The market for Wheat is quiet and unchanged; there is a fair demand for strictly prime, but low grade is hard to sell. New crop quotable at $1,25a1,35 for common to choice red, and new white at $1,30a1,40; old red, $1,40a1,45—sales within the past few days at the outside figures. The Oat market continues dull, but prices are nominally unchanged, 38a40c for Penna. and Ohio mixed, and 41a42 cents for white. Shelled Corn is quoted at 66a68c on track, and ear at 68a70c. New ear, 50. Rye and Barley continue dull, and, in the absence of sales, we omit quotations.

HAY—There is no change to note in prices; market continues dull. Baled, on track, prairie, $12a14; timothy, $17a19, as to quality.

POTATOES—The market is overstocked, dull and prices are lower; quoted as follows: Peerless and Early Rose on track, 28a32c; Peach Blows, 38a40c. Jerseys Sweets, $3a3,25 per barrel.

PROVISIONS—The market for the hog product continues slow, and prices are easy but not quotably lower. Our latest western advices report hogs firmer.

NUTS—Chestnuts dull; $3,50a4 per bush. Walnuts hard to sell at any price.

POULTRY—Live Chickens, 50a60c per pair by the coop.

RAGS—Good mixed, 2¼a3c.

SEED—Sales of Timothy Seed at $2,75a2,80 to the trade, and $2,85a2,90 in a small way.

TALLOW—Is quoted at 9 1-2a9¾c for city rendered; 9a9¼c for country.

Chicago Seed Market.

Timothy was in demand and steady, under smaller offerings, at $2,20a2,30 for fair to good, and $2,35a2,40 for prime to choice seed. Clover was dull at $6a6,10. Flax sold at $1,16a1,30, and a car of millet at 45 [illegible].

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, November 3, 1875. }

Trade continues quiet, there appears to be little or no movement in either Crude or Refined, and prices are nominally unchanged. Crude was quoted at $1,75a1,78 per barrel in barges to arrive on this water, delivered at works, which is cheaper than it can be laid down here by rail. As regards Refined there appears to be a stand-off; buyers and sellers are still apart in their views, and there is not enough doing to establish quotations.

The Barrel market continues very dull and nominal at $1,25a1,30 for countries, and city make at $1,40.

Late foreign advices report that the quantities of refined taken for consumption from Bremen, Antwerp, Hamburg, Rotterdam and Stettin for the week ending on Saturday, at 62,000, barrels. This makes an aggregate for the four weeks ending taat day of 237,000 barrels, and a grand total for the year of 1,754,000 barrels. The latest mail advices from London are up to the 16th of October. Up to that date this year the quantity of refined taken from London was 165,400 barrels, against 130,400 the same time last year. The stock of refined on the 11th of October at London was 38,000 barrels against 142,200 barrels the same time last year.

ORDINANCES.

[No. 92.]

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing the opening of Sassafras alley from 28th to 29th streets.

WHEREAS, By the provisions of the 8th paragraph of the second section of Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to authorize the Mayor for and on behalf of the city of Pittsburgh, to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., whereby the public travel on and across the railroad of said Company within the limits of said city, may be made more secure by crossing certain streets above or below the grade of said railroad, and by the removal of certain side tracks crossing the approach to said station and whereby increased facilities may be afforded for the receipt and shipment of the railroad traffic of said city," passed 31st October, 1872, it is agreed as follows, [illegible]: "The said Company agrees to have Sassafras alley, from 27th street to 30th street, widened to the width of fifty (50) feet at its cost, said widening to be effected by adding twenty-six (26) feet upon the northerly side as now located."

AND WHEREAS, A petition from the owners of property in interest has been presented to Council asking for the opening and widening of said Sassafras alley, between 28th and 29th streets. Now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the city of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the City Engineer be and he is hereby authorized and directed to survey and open within 60 days from the date of the passage of this Ordinance, Sassafras alley, from 28th to 29th streets, at a width of fifty feet, in accordance with an agreement, approved by Ordinance passed by Councils, the 31st day of October, 1872. The damages caused thereby and the benefits to pay the same to be assessed and collected in accordance with the provisions of an Act of Assembly entitled "An Act concerning streets and sewers in the city of Pittsburgh," approved Jan. 6, 1864, and the several supplements thereto.

SEC. 2. That any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with the passage of this ordinance, at the present time, be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same affects this ordinance.

Ordained and enacted into a law, in Councils, this 4th day of Oct., A. D. 1875.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

THE stage of water last evening was five feet two inches, and about stationary. The Allegheny was reported at a stand in the afternoon, with three feet nine inches at Oil City. No rise in the Monongahela as yet, and it is not likely there will be sufficient water to let the coal fleet out.

CAPT. ST. CLAIR THOMASON is in Cincinnati.

THERE are 5,000 barrels cement at Louisville for St. Louis.

IT IS probable the Emma Graham will extend her trip to this port.

IT is said the owners of the John F. Dravo have concluded to wreck her.

CAPT. R. C. CALHOUN, an old time steamboatman, was in town yesterday.

THE Wild Duck, Capt. Adams, as will be seen by card, is announced to depart for St. Louis on Saturday.

THE Fearless, John A. Wood and Coal Valley, with their tows, may be expected to arrive to-day or to-morrow.

THE Carrie Brooks was unable to get out of the Muskingum, which explains her non-appearance here as expected.

PILOTS complain terribly of the neglect of the Government light-keepers below Cairo. The lights at seven places were out on Friday night.

No arrivals or departures, and there are no boats due within the next few days, excepting some towboats that were laid up along the river waiting for water.

THE popular steamer, John L. Rhoads, Capt. J. M. Vandergrift, is announced to depart for St. Louis to-morrow. Mr. John C. Fisher still retains charge of the office.

CAPT. BEN. HALL, of the Alice Brown, has again put in appearance; like a good many others, Captain Ben. thought there would be sufficient water to let the coal fleet out.

GEN. JEFF. THOMPSON is credited with the prediction that by the 1st of January the Mississippi river will have cut a new channel near Vicksburg, leaving that place two miles inland.

THE John B. Maude was so unfortunate as to run through herself on her last trip up from New Orleans. She broke both heads of her starboard cylinder. She will be repaired in a few days.

THE boats at present to comprise the new packet line between New Orleans and the Ouachita, are the Ouachita Belle, Bastrop, Shannon, Kate Kinney, Rapids and Willie, with other applicants close at hand.

THE hull of the Indiana has been sold to Whitehall & Co., at Arkansas City. It is much twisted, but when the river rise the thing will be straightened up, and it is then to be stationed at Arkansas City for a wharfboat.

THE deaths reported at the United States Marine Hospital at Louisville, for the month of October, are Andrew Gasson, colored rouster off the steamer Tarascon, and Henry Thomas, colored rouster off the steamer Vint. Shinkle.

IT is probable, in view of the rise, that the Cincinnati and Big Sandy Packet Co. will give up the Exchange again within the next day or two, and if so, she will doubtless be placed in the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati trade again.

CAPT. JOHN A. WILLIAMS, who has a 5,000 mile pilot license, extending from New Orleans to Fort Benton, on the Missouri, and Fort Smith, on the Arkansas, is on his way south to run in lower country trades during the winter.

THE coal dealers at Kansas City, below Chicot, have had their hands full lately to keep passing steamers supplied with fuel. A barge with 4,000 boxes has gone coasting below Arkansas City to supply planters and blacksmiths along the way.

LABOR is very scarce at all points between Cario and New Orleans, but especially so at Memphis and Vicksburg. The inducements offered by planters, who pay 75 cents to $1 per cwt. for picking cotton, is the chief cause of working people being so difficult to obtain.

THE Memphis Avalanche, which is often in error, gets off the following as the last one: "Andy Robinson, who used to run the steamer St. Marys, has been trying to run a newspaper for a year past, but the enterprise in his hands was a signal failure. Its light went out last Wednesday, and Andy is out of a berth." The truth is that it was not Capt. Robinson's paper that suspended, but the Ohio River Pilot.

CONTRARY to general expectation, Henry Tyson has been appointed permanent receiver for the C. & O. Railroad by the United States Circuit Court, in session at Richmond, Va. He had previously been appointed temporary receiver, on petition of Baltimore creditors, to an amount of less than $125,000. Other interests, which represented $23,000,000, desired that General Wickham should be appointed receiver.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Additional Postal Railway Car Service Proposed.

Brigham Young's Case Discussed at a Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, November 2, 1875.

The Postal Railway Car Service.

The Post Office Department is desirous of inaugurating postal railway car service between Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and St. Louis as early as possible, and as the result of the conference between Col. Scott and Assistant Postmaster General Tyner it is expected that the service can be put in operation by the first day of December.

The Imprisonment of Brigham Young.

The Cabinet was in session about two hours. The question of the imprisonment of Brigham Young was talked of, but without further action than a reference of the matter to the Attorney General, who will make an investigation. The question presented is whether the arrest of Brigham Young could be made on the ground claimed by the woman, for the reason that her marriage with Young was illegal, being contrary to the laws of the United States, and she cannot take advantage of her own wrong.

Freedmen's Bank Dividend.

Yesterday and to-day the Freedmen's Bank was crowded with resident colored persons, drawing their portion of the dividend of twenty per cent. Depositors residing at a distance are required to forward their books, or other evidence of indebtedness, through some responsible bank, or by mail or express.

Gold Bank in Voluntary Liquidation.

The Comptroller of the Currency received a telegram to-day from the President of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco, informing him that the bank has gone into voluntary liquidation.

LATEST FOREIGN ADVICES.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Royal Visitors.

LONDON, November 2.—The King and Queen of Denmark and their daughter, Princess Thyra, accompanied by Prince John of Schleswig-Holstein, Sanderberg and Glucksladt, arrived in England to-day. The royal party were met at Dover by the Princess of Wales and suite, and escorted to London. The distinguished visitors will remain until the beginning of December.

Judicial.

Notwithstanding the regular Michaelmas term has been abolished, Lord Cairns, Lord Chancellor, extended the customary reception to the Judges at his mansion to-day. They afterwards proceeded in procession to Westminster Hall to the inauguration of the new Michaelmas sittings. Under the Judicature act the Lord Chancellor and Lord Justices will sit as a Court of Appeal.

Business Failure.

LIVERPOOL, November 2.—Daca, Paleologo & Sons have suspended. Their liabilities are stated to be half million a dollars.

ITALY.

Trial of Murderers.

ROME, November 2.—The trial is proceeding in this city of Guiseppe Lucioni, Michele Armati, Luigi Marelli, Cornelis Farina, Pio Frezza, and Salvatore Scharpetti, charged with being concerned in the murder of Raffarle Sonzogus, editor and joint proprietor of the ultra Democratic journal, La Capitale. The assassination created a great sensation at the time, and was by many attributed to the clercial party. This excitement has by no means died out, as may be seen in the fact that the Postoffice sequestrates all foreign newspapers containing the trial proceedings. The trial has apparently developed the fact that the murder was committed by Frezza, though the evidence is believed to be insufficient to convict Lucioni, who was at one time thought to be the real instigator of the crime.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 2, 1875.

Higher Freight Rates.

It is understood that the railroads running to the West are about to agree on a new and higher freight tariff, to go into effect on the 15th inst., on the basis of sixty cents to Chicago on fourth class freight. Several roads yesterday ordered their agents to make no time contracts for freight.

Business Failures.

A dozen or more small failures were announced yesterday, embracing traders in nearly every line of staples. There were none of any magnitude, and a majority of them came to light by assignments filed in the office of the Clerk of Courts.

C. B. Conant & Co., wholesale coal dealers, made a general assignment for the benefit of their creditors yesterday.

Fatal Duel.

A duel occurred this afternoon on the top floor of No. 106 Delancey street between two Polish Jews, named Joseph Goldman and Moses Pirkalt. Goldman was shot over the right temple and right cheek, and instantly killed. Pirkalt was shot over the right eye and mortally wounded. The men were partners as jewellers at No. 59 East Broadway, and the tragedy is supposed to have arisen out of a business quarrel.

ARKANSAS LEGISLATURE.

The Governor's Message—Proceedings of Both Houses.

LITTLE ROCK, November 2.—The Governor's message was delivered this morning to both Houses of the General Assembly in convention assembled here. He commends some legislation to make the workings of the Finance Board more effective, such legislation as will prevent the working of penitentiary convicts outside the prison walls, the passage of bills in reference to the landed interests of the State, an appropriation for the Centennial, the creation of a Bureau of Immigration, Mining and Agriculture, and that no general legislation be entered upon in the State. A memorial was introduced and referred, asking Congress to take charge of the Mississippi levees; also a memorial asking aid for the Texas & Pacific Railroad.

In the House a memorial was introduced asking Congress to make an appropriation for the improvement of the rivers of Arkansas.

RELIGIOUS CENTENNIAL.

Proposed Celebration in Cincinnati in 1876.

CINCINNATI, November 2.—At a meeting of a large number of clergymen of this city last evening it was resolved that a centennial religious celebration be held in Cincinnati in 1876; that a board of managers, consisting of fifteen persons, be appointed, who shall be charged with the execution and development of plans for the celebration; that the invitations to participate shall embrace the whole land and all religionists, and be limited only by the utmost ability to make it such a religious success, both in representation and members, as the world has never witnessed. It is understood this enterprise meets with the approval of Director General Goshorn.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Condensed Telegrams from All Quarters.

—Twenty-two female clerks have been dismissed from the Patent Office.

—The steamship Farraday has grappled and bouyed the direct United States cable.

—The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that Geo. E. Howe was entitled to retain his place as Superintendent of the Ohio Reform School.

—Ed. Johnson, a desperate negro, stabbed two white men and two negroes on the steamer Phil. Allen on Sunday about twelve miles below Memphis, killing one of the negroes instantly. The other one was put ashore in a dying condition.

—The injunction obtained in St. Louis on Monday prohibiting the performance of "Two Orphans" by the McKee Rankin Combination, was dissolved yesterday, and the piece was played at Debar's Opera House last night to a crowded house.

—It was reported in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, a strike will occur among the miners in the Hocking Valley. Last week the miners at work in Nelsonville, Straitsville and Shawnee regions held a meeting, and adopted resolutions that on and after November 1st they would make a demand for sixty cents per ton for mining. Their present pay is fifty cents per ton. Last Saturday they held another meeting, and extended the time till to-day, the object being to give the operators three days' notice. The operators declare they cannot afford to pay the proposed increase, and some of them think the strike after all will not occur.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Nineteen Persons Drowned in Canada.

QUEBEC, November 2.—During a gale and snow storm on Sunday an accident by which about seventeen persons lost their lives occurred at St. Familie, Isle of Orleans. The people were principally residents of the island, returning from market, and were being landed from the steamer in a scow, which capsized and all on board, with one exception, were drowned. During the same gale John Campbell, chief officer of the steamer Canadian, and a laborer were drowned.

Election Irregularities in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, November 2.—The Secretary of State has sent a letter to the Attorney General, stating that in the abstract of votes returned to him no votes were placed opposite the township of Perrysburg, Wood county, and stating that he had been requested to defer issuing commissions to those certified to have been elected until the matter can be adjusted in the Courts, and asking the Attorney General's opinion on the subject. In anwer to this letter the Attorney General has given an opinion, "That the duty of the Secretary of State in respect to such abstracts is wholly ministerial. He is simply required to countersign such commissions as are issued by the Governor, but as to whether a commission should issue or he withheld in any case he can have no concern, and can take no action."

Election Stabbing Affray in Chicago.

CHICAGO, November 2.—J. J. Magill, acting as challenger in the first precinct of the First ward, was about noon stabbed several times by a man named Peter Mayer. It seems that Mayer had been arrested at the instance of Magill, but being released, attempted to vote, when Magill challenged him a second time, whereupon Mayer drew a knife and stabbed him, so that his life is in danger. Magill was arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, but Mayer, the assailant, is still at large.

Earthquake Shocks.

WASHINGTON, GA., November 2.—At five minutes to ten last night there were two severe shocks of earthquake, continuing about forty-five seconds. The second shock followed almost immediately after the first. The direction was a little west of south. There was a rumbling sound, with a moving motion, which shook the earth and houses, causing some alarm.

ATLANTA, November 2.—A distinct shock of earthquake was felt here and in other parts of Georgia last night.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 2.—A severe shock of earthquake was reported at Yuma, on the Colorado river.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, November 2.—Calvin Littlefield, of New York, has filed a bill in equity in the United States Circuit Court against the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company, asking that a receiver for the road be appointed. The petition will not be resisted.

Acknowledgments.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

The members of the Executive Committee of the International Conference of the Women's Christian Associations, would acknowledge their indebtedness to you for granting so much space in the columns of the GAZETTE to the reports of the recent Conference, and for the accuracy with which they were inserted. They feel especially grateful, as the mode of reporting was somewhat unusual, and the favors extended to them by the press of the city, must be regarded as extremely courteous.

MRS. M. N. MAGOFFIN, Secretary.

A Determined Effort to Burglarize.

About two o'clock yesterday morning a daring attempt was made to rob a house occupied by a Mr. Williamson in Reserve township, about a mile and a half out the Butcher's Run road, North of Allegheny. Living with Mr. Williams is an old man named Fletcher. About 2 o'clock A. M. a knocking was heard at the door, and Fletcher not suspecting any harm, opened the door, when five men made a rush for it, three of them making an entrance. These immediately proceeded to Mr. William's room up stairs, where he was sleeping with his wife, and made a desperate attempt to get in. Mr. Williams warned them to leave or he would shoot; to this they replied that two could play at that game, and thereupon a number of shots were exchanged. No one was hurt and the robbers made good their escape. Mr. Williams is about 70 years old.

WHAT IS WRONG?

Difficulty Between the Adams Express Company and the Connellsville Railroad—Refusal of the Former to Receive Goods.

There is trouble between the Connellsville Railroad and the Adams Express Company in regard to transporting the latter's freight. The precise nature of the difficulty, how it originated or how far the refusal to carry extends along the line of the road, our reporter was unable to ascertain, though a number of gentlemen connected with both corporations were interviewed. They were aware of the fact of clashing interests, but could furnish no particulars. The Adams Express office was visited yesterday afternoon by a gentleman who desired to ship a package to Uniontown, but the receiving clerk declined to accept it for the reason stated above. However, negotiations are now in progress for a settlement of the trouble and it is likely they will be consummated either to-day or to-morrow by the Express Company resuming the acceptance of goods or the Connellsville Railroad Company assuming entire and exclusive control of the matter.

YESTERDAY'S WORK.

A Grand Republican Victory.

The State and County Tickets Sweep the Field—Large Republican Gains—A Majority of Over 6,000—R. H. Fife Elected Sheriff—Patterson in Mourning—The Entire County Ticket Elected.

Yesterday was devoted to the elections, and in the estimation of all good citizens, other matters for the time were of secondary importance to the duty of voting. The weather was very favorable fo "election day," although it was somewhat cool, which rendered working around the polls somewhat chilling. The bright sunshine, however, had the effect of inducing the people to turn out more largely, and to take even a deeper interest in the struggle. It was generally conceded that the Republican ticket, both State and County, would "go through," but there was just enough of opposition in certain directions to give a spice of interest to the contest which it would not otherwise have had.

ALL QUIET.

Notwithstanding this fact of some opposition in certain quarters, and the consequent display of unusual energy among the workers, the excitement was of a peaceful character, and the atmosphere was not at all charged with the electricity of belligerency. One cause of this was in the fact that the law concerning the closing of saloons was very generally observed, although occasional evidences were afforded that a supply of liquid refreshment had been obtained by some of those to whom the "drinks" on election day seen to be vitally necessary. The day passed, however, without any fighting or disturbances worthy of note, and passed in a manner to make it one of the most quiet elections, for State and county officers, ever noted in these parts. The

INTEREST IN THE STATE TICKET

centered principally in the desire to know how the vote would compare with that of last year. It was generally conceded on both sides that the Republican State ticket would certainly be successful, and bets were freely offered on majorities ranging from 20,000 to 30,000 in the State, and 5,000 to 10,000 in the county. So general was this feeling that the bets found but few takers in opposition ranks and the Democrats were at any time —sacrificing their State ticket whenever opportunity offered for a vote on the county ticket.

READY FOR A TRADE

In some of the wards the trading was carried on pretty extensively, but generally it was confined to a few malcontents, who threw away their principles through feelings of personal malice. The Democrats were especially anxious to enter into such negotiations in the afternoon when it became pretty clear that they were not making that headway which they had anticipated.

The chief interest of the county ticket centered on and here the Democrats massed their strength. They had all through the canvass fought the Republican candidate with all manner of calumnies, and they went into the fight yesterday morning with a strong hope that they could carry the day for Patterson. Some of Patterson's adherents were especially fervent in his behalf, and ready to sacrifice any and everything to put him through. They labored hard, but it was without avail. Their horse hadn't the mettle in him, and he lost the race, coming in far behind. The Democrats made a desperate struggle in this direction, and seemed to stake everything on winning. They were not as jubilant last night as in the morning when they commenced work. The people endorsed by their votes the man who had proved, by faithful service, that he could be trusted in any position to which he might be called.

Another fight was also made on and in this Mr. Augustus Beckert—than whom Allegheny county has never had a more faithful officer—was made the victim. The causes operating here were principally those growing out of the misunderstanding in the recent assessment of county valuations. By the change in the valuations—a change based on the most equitable grounds—in some cases the taxes have been increased and in others diminished. Mr. Beckert was looked upon as one of the men who had been chiefly instrumental in bringing about this change, and so those who were offended by it "scratched" Beckert. The latest returns, however, showed that he was still ahead, and with enough to spare to give him a handsome majority. Capt. McClelland went through without difficulty.

Under the "Minority Representation" rule the Democrats are entitled to one Commissioner. James Irwin is the lucky man selected by the Democrats for that position.

Outside of these two offices there was no special feature of interest connected with the county ticket, and when the polls closed at night, the Republicans congratulated themselves upon having made a clean sweep, and put through a good day's work.

Lafayette Hall.

Every foot of space in Lafayette Hall was occupied last night, and by as orderly an assemblage as ever gathered in any public building. The returns were announced from the stage, in front of which a high railing had been erected for the purpose of keeping the crowd away and bettering the comfort and convenience of those whose duty it was to receive and make known the returns as they were handed in. By eight o'clock the results on the Governorship in some of the districts in the lower part of the city were announced, but the returns came in rather slowly, as a matter of course, the hour being too early to admit of their being either numerous or of including the county as well as the State ticket. The absence of any enthusiasm in the audience was particularly noticeable. In nineteen out of twenty cases the returns announced heavy gains for Hartranft. The information elicited a burst of applause, but nothing approaching the prolonged and continuous cheering that heretofore always characterized campaigns marked by warmth, excitement and uncertainty as to the result. The auditors seemed to consider the election of Hartranft a foregone conclusion, an opinion universally entertained, and hence manifested no disposition to become uproarious over the matter. They did their duty individually during the day and in the evening congregated to hear the aggregate. The first returns were announced by Major Errett, but about half past eight o'clock the portly form and ponderous gray head of Hon. T. J. Bigham made their appearance on the stage. Recognizing him and remembering his meritorious services on former similar occasions he was greeted by the audience with a round of applause and a speech from him was warmly demanded. He forthwith proceeded to read the returns and make funny speeches between times. In one instance he related to the audience what his son had told him the result would be in a certain ward. In five or ten minutes after, the official announcement from that ward came in, and it tallied nearly exactly with what Mr. Bigham's son had said. Mr. Bigham thereupon remarked, in a humorous and self-congratulatory sort of a way, "it is a remarkable fact that my son has told the truth." Perhaps the crowd didn't manifest any signs of laughter. That announcement created more fun, and was the source of more enjoyment than any previous information of the evening. The first returns made public were from the fourth district of the Eighth ward, Pittsburgh, that Hartranft had received 122 votes, Pershing 27 and Browne 11, making a gain for Hartranft of nearly fifty. By nine o'clock the returns, not from the city alone, but from the surrounding counties, were coming in rapidly, and Mr. Bigham was kept quite busy reading them, with an opportunity now and then to inject facetious remarks, but not to extend them. At half past nine o'clock Major Errett announced that in seventy-one districts in the county Hartranft had gained 3,335 over the vote of 1874, thereby overcoming by several hundred votes the Democratic majority of last year, with two-thirds of the county to hear from. Toward eleven o'clock the enthusiasm of the audience commenced to rise, vigorously aided and abetted by Mr. Bigham, and whenever there was a lull in the reception of returns it was utilized by singing, led by the band in the gallery, such stirring songs as "Marching Through Georgia," "John Brown's Body," "Union Forever," "Rally Round the Flag," &c., the whole audience joining in the chorus. Speeches were also made by Col. Bayne, Mr. Vannote, Col. Haymaker, U. S. Marshall Hall, Mr. Fife, Mr. Megraw, Mr. Gray and Col. Updegraff, of Ohio. The latter referred to the public schools of the country, and urged his hearers to watch over and guard them as the cradle of our liberties and the nursery of our free institutions. The eloquent manner in which he expressed the sentiment evoked loud and prolonged applause, which was maintained for several minutes, and which broke out afresh when he renewed his speaking. If anything in the world can be considered evidence of how very dear the common school system is to the masses it was the manifestation last night of approbation of the opinion of Col. Updegraff. Referring to a statement made by the Post, a few mornings ago, that Death loves a shining mark, he said that he was then pretty certain Pershing would be hit, but that he now knew he had been hit sure, and very badly, too. When a dispatch was read announcing that Philadelphia had given 17,000 Republican majority it intensified the general rejoicing and inaugurated an hours jubilee of old war songs, felicitous and congratulatory speeches, story telling &c. By midnight all returns that could be procured had been received and announced, and the quantity and quality of the good news being sufficient to insure a sound sleep, the reward which nature never fails to bestow in return for an honest day's work, the audience adjourned. After leaving the hall the immense crowd formed in line on Wood street and, preceded by the brass band, marched around to all the newspaper offices, singing the same songs with which they made Lafayette Hall resound, and now and then bursting out in cheers. The Democratic headquarters and the Post were included in the tour, but the classic and heretofore defiant but not hopeful precincts of the former were shrouded in cimmerian darkness, from which came not a sound nor a ray of light, while at the latter the proud bird of the barnyard, with which the Post has been accustomed to illuminate and decorate its columns without the slightest cause or provocation, could emit nothing but despairing shrieks and doleful agonizing yawps. The "bonanza" manufactory was dim, gloomy and forbidding, and there was not even an editorial upon Penn avenue commissions to flap in the midnight breeze, but in imagination we could see the discoverer of the bonanza plant himself upon the roof of the spacious building, turn his eyes toward the star lit firmament, stretch his arms and with deep solemnity say that

> "Night, sable Goddess, from her ebon throne
> In rayless majesty now stretches forth
> Her leaden scepter o'er a slumbering world.
> Silence how dead, and darkness how profound.
> The Rag Baby's dead and destined to sleep sound.
> Oh, Pershing and Piolette, where are we now?
> Ask of the winds that from far and near,
> From eastern glade and from western plain,
> Tell of the manner in which we've been slain."

In Allegheny.

The headquarters for all Republicans after the polls had closed, were the rooms of the Young Men's Republican Club on Federal street. An attachment had been made to the Western Union Telegraph line, and the returns were received as they came to the general office. Reports were also received from the different wards. There was no special excitement, but as the returns began to show large Republican gains, as well as a decisive victory, the feeling of the crowd was frequently expressed in enthusiastic demonstrations. The rooms were kept open until near midnight, and were only closed when it became apparent that the result was even better than had been anticipated.

At Democratic Headquarters,

there was a becoming solemnity. The saddest feature of the evening was the whispered announcement that the Post's stock of poultry was a dead loss, and that the party would likely have to settle the damage. Some of those who had taken large stack in the poultry refused at first believe the news, and were only convinced that a blighting epidemic had prevailed in the coop when the "noblest Roman of them all"—so to speak—was brought before them. It was that lordly Shanghai which but a few days before was as full and plump as a balloon. It hadn't the constitution, however, to bear up under the election returns, and great was its collapse. Our special artist, detailed for the purpose, succeeded in photographing it on the spot, and the picture is herewith given.

A glance at the demoralized fowl was sufficient for Democratic eyes, and Democratic enthusiasm at once fell to zero. The headquarters were closed early and the P. P. followers wended their ways homeward, with sorrow laden hearts sadder and it is hoped, wiser men.

The above tables give the returns for Governor from one hundred and twenty-six districts in the county. These include nearly every district in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and a number of rural districts. Hartranft goes out of the city with over 3,000 majority, which insures him from 6,000 to 7,000 majority in the county. The Treasurer keeps well up to his mate in the race.

On the county ticket the returns from 58 districts give Fife a majority over Patterson of 1,003. These are chiefly city districts, and as Fife's strength was generally conceded to lay in the rural districts, it is fair to estimate that his majority will not fall much, if any, under 5,000. This is the most significant defeat of the day for Democracy, for they had massed their strength there, and used every means, fair or foul, to accomplish the defeat of Fife. The result is a merited compliment to an eminently worthy gentleman.

There was something of a fight on the Commissionership, Mr. Beckert being made the target. The result, however, in this direction, as will be seen by the figures, was favorable to Mr. Beckert—a proper endorsement of a very faithful and efficient officer.

The vote on these three—Governor, Sheriff and Commissioner—indicates the general drift. In brief the figures show that the State ticket will get between six and seven thousand majority, and the county not less than five thousand.

The Temperance People.

It's a matter of great surprise to many, how very many real temperance people there are in this State, and especially in this community, that is temperate not only in regard to liquor, but in language, in their ideas, prejudices and preferences. We see this illustrated very forcibly, by way of contrast, among a certain class of business men, say for instance, among the piano dealers, certain of whom find fault with the purchasing public because they (the public) are open to conviction, and while they may have had preference founded on what is now demonstrated to be a mythical, or at most, an obsolete and effete aristocratic idea, they are yet possessed of so much good common sense that when satisfied beyond a doubt of the great superiority of such instruments as the Decker Pianos and the great Estey Cottage Organ, they drop their old ideas and notions and willingly accord to merit its true deserts. If I had it to do over again I certainly should buy a Decker, or an Estey, as the case may be, is an expression if used once has certainly been used many hundred times during our Exposition, by persons who had bought pianos on the strength of some honorable name; but now when comparison, side by side shows the wonderful superiority of the Decker or Estey, they can but indulge regrets, while the more fortunate hearers and observers profit by the others' experience and buy the Decker or Estey; and that they are doing it, and have done it in the last two years, is evidenced in the fact that Mr. S. Hamilton, the general agent for the Decker and Estey, at 77 Fifth avenue, have done over one-third more business than any other house in the city or State, and he will continue to do so as long as he sells such instruments at such extraordinary low prices and easy terms of payments. If you think of buying, be sure and call at Hamilton's, or write to him for catalogues.

Two Delighted Throngs!

One at the Exposition and the other at McFadden's, 53 Fifth avenue. The second, the natural consequence of the first, for those visiting the art gallery at the Exposition find in reserve for them as they leave it, facing the south door, a rich treat in the magnificent display of elegant Silverware, Clocks and Bronzes, by Mr. Thos. McFadden, Jr., and receive from an attendant a neat little card setting forth some facts which induces them to visit his headquarters, 53 Fifth avenue, where they find the statement of the card fulfilled to the letter, and genuine bargains obtained at the actual closing-out sale of his large and grand stock. Strangers, don't go home without visiting McFadden's, 53 Fifth avenue. If you can't stay, then send your orders by mail, and you can depend upon having them promptly filled and satisfaction insured.

PITTSBURGH STEAM MARBLE WORKS.

Nos. 319 and 321 Liberty Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

In order to close out our present stock, preparatory to getting in new stock for next year, I will sell all my present stock of Monuments and Grave Stones at REDUCED PRICES.

Furniture Tops made to order.

Block and slab marble at Eastern prices, freight added. White Lime, Plaster Paris and Hydraulic Cement always on hand at 319 and 321 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

W. W. WALLACE.

The Great Feature of This Exposition

Is frequently remembered by visitors from other cities as they stand before the grand picture battle of Lookout Mountain. See it now if ever.

THE EXPOSITION.

Notes of a Ramble Around the Big House.

Yesterday was election day, and the attendance of the male element was thereby considerably circumscribed; nevertheless the women and children turned out in goodly numbers, especially in the afternoon when the sunshine came out—and the attendance was very fair.

THE CHICKENS.

It had been the intention of the management to hold the Poultry exhibition in the basement, but the extreme openness and chilliness of that sub-Expositional retreat upset this plan. The space allotted to the stove men is now occupied, as to the aisles, with some forty coops of poultry, and attracts general attention. The general display is a very fine one, including chickens, geese, ducks, pigeons, rabbits, &c. The display of pigeons is noticeably good. Mr. Robert Shannon, of Edgeworth Station, on the Ft. Wayne Railroad, has the largest collection in this department, including ten pairs of different breeds. They are the red, they yellow and the black Bald Heads, red mottled Jacobins, olive owl pigeons, show Antwerps, red and the yellow Tumblers and a most beautiful pair of pure white Fan Tails. In the line of rabbits there is quite an assortment. One very large one—bigger than a full grown cat—from Dunkirk, N. Y., can claim the champion long ears. One of these appendages which protruded from his coop was measured and found to be fully an inch longer than a full sized lead pencil, or nearly seven inches long.

THE OIL REGION EXCURSION.

The next excursion under the management of Mr. Smythe will be over the Allegheny Valley Railroad, from the oil regions, leaving Titusville next Thursday morning. The rates for the round trip, including admission to the Exposition, will be as follows: From Titusville, $3.75; Oil City, $3.10; Franklin, $4.80; Parker City, $3.40; Kittanning, $2. These are undoubtedly the lowest rates ever given over the Valley road.

BRIEFS.

The stone saw will probably be running to-morrow. It requires considerable time to place it in position, as it must be very solidly hung. The saw will be driven by Alden's compound engine.

A rock-drilling machine is to be a new attraction in Power Hall.

"EXPOSITION TAFFY."

A rival to Pop Corn is the delicious "Exposition Taffy" manufactured by Messrs. Kramer & Vogleson. There is a great run on this new article in the sweetmeat line, not only at the Exposition but at the retail store of the firm No. 51 Sixth street. The young folks, as well as those of maturer years, who are blessed with a "sweet tooth" are irresistibly drawn towards it.

THE COURT RECORD.

A Complete Report of the Proceedings in the Courts Yesterday.

United States District Court.

(Before Judge McCandless.)

The only business transacted in this Court yesterday was the disposition of the case of James L. Badger, bankrupt, Butler county. Rule to show cause why the injunction granted in this matter should not be dissolved as to McElroy & Dickson argued by Mr. Scott for rule, and Mr. Kirker, contra, and the injunction dissolved by the Court as to McElroy, Dickson & Co., of Philadelphia.

State Supreme Court.

(Before a Full Bench.)

Buchter vs. Heil and wife, error to the Common Pleas No. 1 of Allegheny county, was argued by Mackrell for plaintiff in error and Edmundson, contra.

The case of Hertz vs. Speer & Co., was continued, the death of Arnold Hertz having been suggested.

W. A. V. Magan vs. Hailman, Rahm & Co. Error to the District Court of Allegheny county. Argued by Guthrie for plaintiff in error and Acheson, contra.

Elkins, Bly & Co. vs. Elizabeth McKean. Error to the Common Pleas No. 2, of Allegheny county. Argued by Duff and Mackrell for plaintiff in error and Moore and Marshall contra. The husband of the plaintiff below was killed by the use of explosive oil sold by defendants in error. Suit was brought, it being claimed that the firm knew that it was highly inflammable, explosive and dangerous when it sold the oil. Damages were recovered, whereupon a writ of error was taken out.

Messrs. Wm. O. Crawford and Clark H. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, were admitted to practice in this Court on motion of Thomas M. Marshall, Esq.

Marble Mantels

We have set up, for exhibition, in our show rooms, 319 and 321 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., the largest variety, and the most beautiful stock of mantels in the city, which we will sell at prices to suit the times. We also manufacture and keep on hand, GRATES, GRATE FRONTS, AND FENDERS, made in neat style and finished in a handsome manner. Our new PENDULUM AGITATING GRATE, is the latest and simplest improvement in the grate line. It is neat and efficient, and will clean out the ashes in two seconds, and do it thoroughly. The grate is so arranged that the fine dust is mostly carried up back of the grate, into the chimney, and not on fender or over the room. Our shaker is so constructed that it removes the ashes from the lower part of the grate, without disturbing the upper part of the fuel, thereby securing a more thorough combustion, and a greater amount of heat from the coal, than would otherwise be obtained.

Our grate and shaker are simple, and cost so little to fit them up, ready for use, that we can sell them at half the price that other shakers have been selling for.

Our grates are all warranted to give satisfaction.

N. B.—"As seeing is believing," purchasers are invited to call and examine our mantels and see our Pendulum grate in practical operation at 319 and 321, Liberty street, Pittsburgh.

DS W. W. WALLACE.

Do People Read and Profit?

It is really wonderful how some houses dealing in first-class goods, in the choicest varieties, are adapting their prices to the money-saving feeling of the times. See the unusual inducements offered by H. J. Adams, 98 Fifth avenue, the leading Shirt and Furnishing Goods Establishment of this city.

True Fitting Shirts, 85c to $2.50.
Men's Boys' and Ladies' Underwear, 25c to $4.00.
Winter Gloves, 20c to $1.00.
Lined Kid, $1.00 to $2.00.
Winter Socks, 15c to $1.50.
Suspenders, 20c to $1.50.
Knit Wool Jackets, 75c to $6.00.
Wool Over Shirts, 85c to $2.50.
Elegant Scarfs, Ties, &c., equally cheap.

Mr. Adams is sole agent for Kanowsky Unshrinking Russian Flannels; also, Doctor Smith's Perforated Buckskin Undergarments for Ladies and Gentlemen's wear. By all means go there—it will pay.

Election Returns vs. Overcoats.

Now, that the people have determined who shall be our officers for the next three years, let us all grin and bear and settle down to every day, matter-of-fact-life, and consult our comfort, health and pockets by purchasing a good and substantial overcoat from E. De Roy, of 153 Smithfield street, GAZETTE Building, as he has on hands an immense stock of these goods, of qualities and grades to suit all classes, and so very cheap that the man of small means can have no excuse for not providing himself with one. They are going off very fast, even like hot buckwheat cakes, but still a very large number is yet left, that will astonish the natives when they hear how cheap they are in price. They must be closed out should they bring but ten per cent of their cost.

Oil Region Excursionists.

When you come to visit the Exposition on Thursday, don't fail to see the finest display in the building, (so thousands say) of Mr. Thos. McFadden, Jr., (by the way an old oil region business man) who has some magnificent silverware, clocks and bronzes, just in view facing the Art Gallery door toward the river, and then don't forget to reserve an hour to visit your old friend at big headquarters, 53 Fifth avenue, where you will find some grand things in the way of rich and beautiful Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, etc., which are selling positively at great sacrifice, to close out the whole business by the earliest possible day.

That New Floral Design.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee it was decided that on Friday, October 29th, the Jurors on class 88 erred on two points. 1st, in deciding that because an article was not previously exhibited in the Exposition building it was new; 2d, they erred in deciding that the steamboat model was a new design. The committee then passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That a silver medal be awarded to B. A. Elliott & Co. for the best new and original design—namely the Floral Garden.

The new design of the Floral Garden was exhibited by Benj. A. Elliott & Co., 114 Market street.

To get a fine fitting, stylish cut suit of clothes, or over-coat, leave your orders with Walter Anderson, Merchant Tailor, No. 1 Fifth avenue, corner of Liberty street, who has always on his tables the most choice materials from which to make selections, and being at the head of his profession, patrons run no risk in appearing in ungracefully cut garments; and prices will be found to be as reasonable as those charged at less celebrated houses.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

····A young son of Mr. Harvey Fatual had an arm broken by falling from a box near the gas works on Second avenue yesterday afternoon.

····Major Will. Hartzell, Mayor's clerk, reports that during October 622 cases were disposed of at the Central Police station and 180 at other stations. The receipts were $3,300.60.

····The Xanthas now challenge the Braddocks to play them either a championship or exhibition game at Union Park any day this week or next week.

····Additional bonds to the extent of $30,000 are to be issued to-day for the improvement of Brownsville avenue, making $50,000 out of the $80,000 originally asked for by the Commission.

····There will likely be no boiler experiments at Munhall's farm this season. Yesterday morning Messrs. Holmes and Copeland, two of the Inspectors, arrived in the city, and in answer to interrogatories Mr. Holmes said the Commissioners are now deeply interested in the tests at Sandy Hook, and that there would likely be no experimenting at Munhall farm this season.

The Returns in Full

From every county in the State, Butler county included, is that whatever former preferences might have been, the Decker Pianos and Estey Cottage Organs stand without a rival, unapproached by any other Piano or Organ in this country to-day in power, purity, ease and perfect smoothness of action, grandeur and beauty of both tone and finish, and the most durable instruments made. Couple these facts with the equally important one that they can be bought at such prices and on such terms as those on which S. Hamilton sells them, at 77 Fifth avenue, and no wonder they receive the suffrage and the patronage of all qualified judges of a good instrument.

The Connolly Fire Extinguisher.

Another demonstration of the wonderful efficiency of this Extinguisher will be given on the Exposition grounds this afternoon at three o'clock. All parties interested are cordially invited to be present and witness its complete mastery of the fiery element.

Leaky Roofs.

Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

Dispatches received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship Exchange and Telegraph office, at 163 Smithfield street, announce the arrival of the steamer Wisconsin, at New York.

Enfeebling Pursuits.

Nature intended that we should use our legs freely, and revenges herself upon those who constantly sit in their daily avocations indoors by depriving them of that robust health which usually falls to the share of those who labor on foot in the open air, and very frequently inflicts upon them diseases and premature infirmities which they might have avoided by a more active life. Persons who become enfeebled in consequence of sedentary habits or occupations cannot do better than to resort to a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a means of recovering lost strength. Nor should they postpone a recourse to this supreme tonic and preventive of physical decay longer than absolutely necessary, as weakness is too often the percursor of diseases. The Bitters are also invaluable as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, intermittent fever, urinary and rheumatic complaints.

Her end was peace.

THE MEDICINE THAT CURES IS

VEGETINE.

Taking into consideration the character of its vouchers, the history of its cures and the immense increasing demand, VEGETINE may be fairly entitled the leading medicine of the age.

For Scrofula in the blood, VEGETINE is an infallible remedy, and no person need suffer from tumors, ulcers, and all diseases arising from impure blood, if VEGETINE is used according to directions. There is not a case of Scrofula in existence that VEGETINE will not cure, provided, however, the vital functions have not lost their power of action, all that may be said to the contrary notwithstanding.

VEGETINE is pleasant to the taste, mild in its influence, and absolute in its action on disease, as the following unquestionable evidence will show.

JANUARY 9, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

Dear Sir—When about six months old I was vaccinated. The parties who were vaccinated from the same virus died from the humor. The humor spread over me to such an extent that I was rolled in bran to prevent me from scratching my person. The disease finally settled in my head. I remained in this condition about twenty years, troubled all the time with sores breaking in my head, and discharging corruption from my ear. At this time a small kernel appeared on my neck, gradually increasing in size until a tumor formed of such immense size I could see it by turning my eyes downward. All this time I was taking various remedies for my blood without substantial benefit.

I then went to a prominent physician in Boston, who, during his treatment of six months, lanced the tumor eight times, which cost me nearly $400. This left me with a rough, aggravated sore, without at all diminishing the size of the tumor, and in a sickly, feeble condition. I consulted another physician in Natick, who, after considerable time, succeeded in healing the sore without reducing the size. At this point I commenced to use VEGETINE, through the earnest persuasion of a friend. After I had taken this medicine about one week I experienced wonderful sensations. My whole body seemed to be undergoing a radical change, until finally, the tumor broke and discharged frightful quantities. From this time it increased in size until the bunch disappeared, but my neck still bears the ugly scars of the sore and lance. I am now healthy and strong and able to work every day.

I will also mention that I have been an acute sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism ever since I can remember, until commencing the use of VEGETINE, when almost immediately all rheumatic pains ceased. This statement I volunteered for the purpose of benefiting other suffering humanity, and you will confer a favor by giving it as much publicity as thought proper. Very gratefully,

O. M. SAVELS, Ashland, Mass.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers; for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1874.

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have sold at retail 154 1-3 dozen (1852 bottles) of your VEGETINE, since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it is recommended that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours,
AL GILMAN,
